

NEW ADVENTURES AUDITION POLICY

NEW ADVENTURES OBLIGATIONS

- New Adventures will notify dancers in advance if the audition is to be recorded in any way.
- Everyone's application will be considered and those successful will receive an email inviting them to audition.

DANCERS' OBLIGATIONS

- The dancer should arrive in adequate time and be fully prepared.
- The dancer or their agent should inform New Adventures as soon as possible if they are unable to attend an audition at the specified time.
- If the dancer arrives late for an audition, New Adventures will not be obliged to audition the dancer.

FACILITIES

- Audition venue will be of a suitable size, cleaned, heated and ventilated.
- Dancers will have the opportunity to wait and warm up in a designated area for a reasonable time prior to the audition.
- New Adventures will aim to ensure that there is appropriate access for all dancers when informed of relevant access requirements at least 48 hours in advance.

PERSONNEL

- There will be sufficient New Adventures team members inside the audition room to conduct the audition and outside the audition room to help with any reasonable requirements of the dancers.
- The audition panel will include directors and creative management.
- There will be roughly 30 auditionees in the space at one time, and 2 dance artists leading the audition.

DATA PROCESSING AND STORAGE

- All data on applicants will be processed and stored in line with New Adventures Privacy Policy.
